Blue Eyes Brings Breezy News From Neighboring Countryside

August 4, 1914.

Mrs. J. A. Fisher is on the sick list.

We were glad to get that nice rain last week.

Tarbuton's are threshing in this neighborhood.

John Newberry spent Sunday with J. A. Fisher's.

The headings over the items I think are all right.

Oliver Durnham was in Ava last week on business.

Mrs. May Dickerson spent Tuesday with Mrs. Dave Norcross.

Mrs. Dave Findley spent Friday evening with Mrs. Dora Woody.

Mrs. Dave Findley spent Thursday evening at W. F. Shortridge's.

Clint Williams and Miss May Nelson attended church at Macomb Sunday.

I wonder what Maria Williams will do now since Arley Findley has gone.

Mrs. Rose Edwards, of Springfield, is visiting friends in Mansfield this week.

Ernie Williams and wife spent Saturday and Sunday with her father, Robert Marton.

Fred Miller, from Oklahoma, was at Macomb a few days last week looking for a location.

Miss Gertie Hanson, from Springfield, is spending a few days with Miss May Nelson.

W. O. Williams went to Parsons, Kas., Thursday to take the baby. His sister, Lola Moore, will care for it a while.

I wonder what is the matter with Edith Schafer and Vergil Royal? She goes one way and him the other "any more."

Miss Birdie Gray and Johnnie Woody were married Sunday.

We wish them much joy and a long and happy life together.

There was a revival meeting started at the M. E. church at Macomb last Saturday night. Don't know how long it will last.

Ed. Williams, wife and daughters, Bessie, Mary and Myra, went to church at Mansfield and took dinner with Verr Williams.

Glen Moberly got lost Sunday, and when he was found he was going down the road with one of the Francis girls. Be careful, Glen.

A crowd of young people surprised Richard Shlicher Friday evening, July 31, his 19th birthday. The evening was spent in singing.

Oscar Fisher got lost Sunday night and when he found himself he was at Ed. Williams' talking to Maria. Oscar, you must watch for Arley.

Say, Sunshine, if there is prayer meeting at the Baptist church every Saturday night it is news to Blue Eyes, for some of the boys went from here, and they said there was "nothing doing."

There will be an all day singing at the Macomb Baptist church the first Sunday in September conducted by Uncle Sira Odle, and there will be dinner on the ground. Everybody come and bring some one with you.

I wonder where Katie was last week? I missed her. Say, Katie, if you did not get dinner at Macomb the Sunday of the singing there is going to be another singing there the first Sunday in September, and if you will come Blue Eyes will see that you get your dinner without you having to buy it.

Katie, are not your initials M. S., or P.? P. W. it is now. I know Sunshine is E. R. I know her well. I often went to see her before she moved to Macomb. She won't own up, but here is one that is not afraid to own up to her own name when it is guessed right. Pansy's initials are O. F. and Sukey's L. B. I have been to visit both of them. Do you girls remember me? BLUE EYES.

Mrs. W. D. Blansett returned from St. Louis Thursday night where she has been visiting her mother.

Misses Mable and Bernice Hagerman returned to their home in Mountain Grove Friday morning.

What is the matter, Liza Jane, that you were not with us last week? Come again; we like to hear from you.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wolf, of Memphis, Tenn., arrived Wednesday and will spend two or three weeks here.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin and son, Merlin, left for Arkansas Saturday where they will visit relatives several weeks.

OZARK LASSIE

Remarkable Cure of Dysentery

"I was attacked with dysentery about July 15th, and used the doctor's medicine and other remedies with no relief, only getting worse all the time. I was unable to do anything and my weight dropped from 145 to 125 pounds. I suffered for about two months when I was advised to use Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I used two bottles of it and it gave me permanent relief." writes B. W. Hill of Snow Hill, N. C. For sale by all dealers—Adv.

ROUTE NUMBER ONE

News of the Neighborhood As Gathered by Our Correspondent

August 3, 1914.

Jessie McIntosh is visiting at Coday McIntosh's.

Mr. Schlicher's folks were Sunday evening callers at Mr. Shreeves.

Alva Frye is visiting her cousin, Leota Brentlinger, this week a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Paris and Mr. Crippen's family spent Sunday at John Frye's.

Mrs. James Frye's mother and brother visited her a couple of days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson visited in Dallas county last week, returning home Friday.

Thomas Bogart's family visited at Joe Dennis' the other Sunday, and James Frye's at Mr. Crippen's.

Sukey, I can't answer your riddle, so I have to ask you to please answer it for me in the next paper.

Roy and Fred Brazel, who have been working in Nebraska most of the summer, came in home last week.

Say, Mr. Issitt, I would like to get acquainted with you, for I can't imagine who you can be that has only seen me one time.

Courtney Minor came home last Friday night from North Missouri where he has been working all summer. He came home sick.

Hello, everybody. How are all of you? And I want to tell the kind editor that I like the way the items are headed much better than the old style.

Frankie McIntosh, Letha and Albie Shanes, Lue Dennis, Ethel and Cora Findley and Maggie Bennett, all called on Mabel Anderson Sunday afternoon, and some of them had their pictures made.

Say, what do you know about it. Evans Frye has moved his things in his barn loft and is doing his own cooking. Now, girls, it looks like some of you might take pity on him and help him out a little bit.

I guess everybody will be surprised, as well as myself, to hear that Elliott Pope is married to an Oklahoma lady. She was a widow with three children. We wish him all the good luck and hope how well he gets along.

Alva Hensley undoubtedly got lost Sunday night. We supposed he started to singing, but as the people were coming home from singing they met him coming from towards Joe Frye's. So I guess he got lost and spent his time over there instead of attending singing.

Mrs. W. F. Stone had quite a surprise last Thursday. Her daughter, Mrs. Alexander, was visiting her a few days, and was on her way to California. All the other girls came but two, and Mrs. Stone knew nothing about the arrangements until they were there. She certainly was surprised and glad, also. They took dinner and had a regular family reunion.

PANSY.

Christian Church News

Large audiences both morning and evening last Sunday. Work progressing fine. Evangelistic meetings in big tent commence the first Sunday in September. Everybody invited to attend. Good sermons and good music.

Six new scholars enrolled in the Sunday school last Sunday. If you do not attend Sunday school GET THE HABIT. A cordial welcome extended to all.

J. A. RILEY, Superintendent Sunday School.

THE ENEMY OF CHILDHOOD.

The greatest enemy of childhood is the tapeworm and similar parasites. They are the direct cause of the loss of thousands of children who were so weakened by the pernicious action of these pests that they became easy victims of disease. The best protection against worms is to give the children an occasional dose of WHITE'S CREAM VERMIFUGE. It not only removes worms, but acts as a general tonic to the stomach and bowels.

Sukey Sees Numerous News Notes Interesting to Our Readers

August 3, 1914.

Hello! Here's Sukey, the milk maid

Liza Jane, I guess your initials are S. G.

Mrs. G. W. Brentlinger is improving slowly.

Rastus spent a few days with Sukey this week.

Garland Ungles spent a week with Ernest Wade.

Mrs. E. E. Marshall spent Tuesday at J. A. Riley's.

Charles Brentlinger, jr., is at home on a visit now.

G. W. Brentlinger is staying at John Brentlinger's.

Sam Letsinger's spent Sunday at Wm. Lotzenhizer's.

Jay Dennis and family dined at J. W. Edwards' Sunday.

Mrs. Littrell called on Mrs. M. H. Barlow Tuesday morning.

George Brewer's spent a very pleasant day at Wm. Wilder's.

Mrs. J. A. Riley and Marian called on Mrs. E. E. Marshall.

Say, George Frye takes some powerful long trips, doesn't he?

Aunt Jane Freeman and Mrs. Hart spent Sunday at Amos Roy's.

Rev. Joseph Davis' are real busy entertaining company this week.

J. W. Brentlinger and wife called at G. W. Miller's Sunday evening.

Ben Veit and mother spent Sunday, July 26, with Wm. Lotzenhizer's.

Miss Vivian Miller has been visiting her cousin, Miss Myrtle Freeman.

Clarence Brewer says he sure enjoys "going" to the old-fashioned singin's.

Miss Rose Williams called on Miss Leota Brentlinger Thursday evening.

Mr. Wade, Mrs. Emer Ungles and daughter, Dorothy, were at Wm. Ungles' Sunday.

John Miller's served ice cream Saturday night to several of their neighbors and friends.

Ur Williams left Sunday night for Oklahoma, where he intends to work in the oil fields.

Ed Williams and family, Paul Williams and Will Tyson spent Sunday at Verr Williams'.

Garland Ungles attended the morning and evening services at the Christian church Sunday.

Verr Williams and family called at John Brentlinger's Tuesday evening, and had ice cream.

Miss Esther Starne visited in town from Monday to Wednesday with Miss Alice Tombleson.

Paul Williams and wife and Mrs. Rose Edwards of Springfield took supper at G. W. Brewer's.

Lewis Lotzenhizer stayed all night with Alva Letsinger one night last week—I forget which one.

J. A. Riley's spent a very enjoyable day at J. E. Craig's Sunday. James Bell of Kansas City is home on a visit.

Dinah, I believe that you and the "devil" are in league and that is how you manage to keep every body fooled so long.

Say, wasn't that a cute picture of Honey Kid? I believe I'd go to taking in washing if I could get my picture in the paper.

Misses Rastus and Sukey called on their aunt Sunday evening, and went down to see the thresher Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Woodland and Mrs. Reuben Williams called on Grandma Williams one day last week. Miss Rose Williams called in the evening.

I guess Rastus enjoys coming down to see me. We explored every cave there was in a mile of us—but that just happened to be one.

George Frye was hurt real seriously with wirs stretchers on Monday evening. His many friends hope for his speedy recovery.

Dinah, did you see Rastus and me Sunday evening? We were all over town—with our red ribbons on—but we never saw any green bows, yellow flowers and green leaves; guess you were at the big singing at No. 5, weren't you?

I think the headings at the beginning of our items are awfully nice. I expect we all have an enlargement of the brain to a great extent.

J. W. Edwards and Jay Dennis threshed their wheat Monday. Mesdames Sam Letsinger, Dave Crider and E. E. Marshall helped get supper.

We notice that Mr. Smalley is able to be out riding around again. He and Mrs. Smalley drove out to their son's on the farm Monday.

There was a family reunion and ice cream social at James Letsinger's Sunday. Many relatives and friends were present and all spent an enjoyable day.

Issitt, I suppose you attended the ice cream social at R. W. Starne's, did you not? I wanted to go awfully bad, but it was impossible under the circumstances.

Dinah, how do you know but what I do "lavish some of my affection" on some "poor fellow"? Come down some time, and I'll introduce you to my—intended—

Mrs. Woodland and daughter, Ada, went out to Reuben Williams' Friday, and stayed until Sunday. Then Reuben Williams' family accompanied her home and spent the day.

No, Issitt, I wasn't talking to C. S. at 5 o'clock on the 4th but I don't think he is Dinah, any way. Thanks for the compliment—Sport and I are just climbing to the top, aren't we?

Say, I think the "devil" surely sets type for me, too. The items are mixed so. He must be pretty well posted in the Bible for it says, "The first shall be last, and the last shall be first."

Mrs. E. I. Peters and Miss Alice Tombleson, Mrs. J. W. Brentlinger and daughter, Miss Leota, Abe Hanks and Foster Davis dined at Rev. Joseph Davis' Sunday, July 26, and attended the singing.

Ace, I believe I saw you Sunday. Weren't you on the west side of the park with a pair of green glasses on, and a big red handkerchief around your throat near where the gypsy lady was sitting?

J. W. Brentlinger and wife attended a surprise dinner Thursday in honor of Mrs. W. F. Stone, and Walker Alexander and wife, who are home on a short visit before going to California, where they intend to make their home. All of the children were present, with the exception of Mrs. Wm. Youell and Miss Gertrude Stone. All report a fine dinner and a lovely time.

FLAT ROCK NOTES

The Doings of the Community Graphically Pictured

August 1, 1914.

Here comes Arastus' assistant.

This cool weather of the past few days is enjoyed by all.

Miss Sadie Goss spent Tuesday night with Lillie Herod.

Liza Jane and Arastus went peach stealing one day last week.

Mrs. George Baker spent a few days at T. R. Baker's this week.

Arastus is about to tell you all goodbye and leave the news gathering to Liza Jane.

John McCrite is at home for a while as he is going to canvass around home. He is selling good stuff.

Miss Rhoda Slate, who has had the fever, is improving fast. We will be so glad when she is able to be up again.

Miss Lula Carter, the Flat Rock schoolma'm to be, and Miss Jewel Hoover, the school mistress to be at Macomb, called at Herod's Thursday and took dinner and spent the afternoon.

Everybody get ready for the new county road running from the Lead Hill road to Mansfield. It is hoped that in the near future it will be a rural route. The road when finished will be the best piece of road of the same distance in the country.

MIKE.

SUKEY.

HAPPY HOME HITS

Issitt Is Newsy as Usual, and Gives It In Real Readable Shape

August 3, 1914.

Needing rain in this vicinity. Come on, Dinah, and guess again.

Hello, kind editor and correspondents.

G. E. Peabody is reported to be better.

We are glad to say that all sick folks are improving.

Mildred Freeman is visiting her brother, R. J. Freeman.

Mrs. R. W. Starne spent Monday with Mrs. G. E. Peabody.

Threshing has been the order of the day in this vicinity lately.

Quite a number of jokes going the rounds in this vicinity of late.

Be sure to come to the sale Thursday, August 6, at Eli Deaver's.

Miss Esther Starne spent last week in Mansfield visiting friends.

Singing at Prairie Hollow first and second Sunday afternoons at 3 o'clock.

Miss Martha Moody spent Sunday with Misses Violet and Lela Deaver.

Mr. Moody's eyes are much better. We all hope they will continue getting better.

Sunday school at Prairie Hollow every Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. Everybody come.

Dear Pansy, I hope you are having a nice time since you have finished picking blackberries.

Miss Maggie Moody, Mrs. Bertie Pope and Aunt Hester Shipnough spent Monday at Eli Deaver's.

L. A. Short's are in Trinidad, Colo. Mrs. Short is improving. She gained 2½ pounds in one week. Best wishes to them all.

Miss Dinah, if you think Issitt's initials are R. W. S.—suspect, maybe—you have another think coming. Now come on with your "thinking cap."

I do not think that Ace is a traveling salesman, nor are his letters of correspondence from Willow Springs, but from Mansfield. Now, Ace, I do know who you are.

No, Frankie, you did not hear me talking over the Flint Point line, saying that I was preparing for that next examination. You may have heard a friend of mine saying that, but not Issitt.

Emmet Mankin, wife and daughter, of Ava, spent Saturday night and Sunday at Eli Deaver's. Mr. Mankin has gone home, but Mrs. Mankin and daughter will visit at Mr. Deaver's until Thursday, August 6.

We regret to say that we are going to lose one of our best neighbors from this neighborhood. Eli Deavers will leave for Appleton City, Mo., Sunday morning, where they will visit their daughter, Mrs. Robert Peabody, then leave for California. We all wish them much success, and best wishes go with them.

The dinner at James Letsinger's Sunday was well attended. Among those present were: Reuben Stephens and family, Ed. Deaver and wife, Samp. Letsinger and family, Mrs. Belle Starne and children, Seif. Letsinger and family, Mrs. Geo. Crain and son, and Marion Letsinger and family. All report a nice time and a good dinner, with ice cream in the afternoon.

Issitt.</
